

LIFE

Presenter: Mrs. Lana Praner with The Lords, Brežice, Slovenia, 19 October, 2019

Jasara.

Well, let's begin. In Our world as well We have laughed to tears. So, kind and heartfelt thanks to Our graceful and saintly Aida Ajda Praner for such pleasant words. (clapping)

At the same time kind and heartfelt thanks to all of you that has responded. And nice, warm heartfelt day to all of Those that are still traversing and Those that are in different spheres, spaces, dimensions, latitudes, Sovereign placements and many many, which are hard to speak about or give My Honour, My Word, My Thought, because it is so big and is such a powerful placement, on which we will embark today.

Fantastic topic, which is somehow loving and graceful, especially to me.

And that I am chosen especially for you, The Sovereign Lord Yahvet Yachvaryun Almighty, it is for me truly a great honour.

LIFE HAS ALL DISGUISES IN ITS WHOLENESS

Life - so beautiful and so mighty. At the same time so perfect and so bitter. It has all disguises in its wholeness.

Many times, through life, through journey, through greatness, in which you are, we are and they still will be, we often question ourselves why?

How is it possible that we are where we are? How is it possible that you are where you are?

And every time over and over again the question gives the same answer - AWARENESS.

AWARENESS

Awareness is greatness in which is the journey, traveling through movement and motion of life and intertwining.

Until the energy is in the movement it is possible to somehow intertwine, transform and change.

Oh how big this honour is, that a human has life!

Oh how mighty is this honour, when God stood up and kept his stance.

In one moment he said mightily: "What I Am, I give this to everyone - Creativity, Creation, Greatness in which I Am. I stand in front of everyone and watch over everyone."

That is how, once, someone said, when the first saintly and bright traveller was given from Himself among Us or among you.

Life on Earth is so short-lived. Short journey, I would say. But the biggest powerful disguise, which many can't stand and they lose determination.

However, maybe from today's day on, you will honour life, honour everything you are, what you will be, what you will transform for yourself and others, for many other travellers, you will give something.

WHEN THE FEAR APPEARS, THIS SHOULD BE THE FIRST SIGN THAT WE ARE IN A RECORD THAT IS UPGRADING

At the first shake and tremble, at the first pain of the first hit, the pain of fear was made. Fear is something what used to be, and fear is just a consequence of some action. And when fear appears, let this be the first signal that you are in a record that is upgrading.

If there wouldn't be any fear you wouldn't be reminded of anything or remembered to be alert, to be present, to be in Life, here and now.

Energy is the stream of thoughts, stream of awareness, is the stream of creativity. And because of that there is a consequence, because of the consequence, fear is there.

Everything that thought creates is always pain, at least the consequence, always and everywhere!

Why do we narrate in such a way?

Because you are creating consciously, planned and rationally. That means, there are always left those that are leading the game of life or journey.

A THOUGHT CAN BE DESTRUCTIVE OR BENEFICIAL

How is it possible that a thought is so destructive when a thought can be beneficial too. Maybe I am wrong but I am not.

When a thought is beneficial, the individual whispers to himself: "I have to do that for everyone's benefit, I have to do that for a man's good, I have to do that for the sake of parental relationship and friendship or maybe because this is what is expected!"

And so the thought is always something that is for someone else. And even if it is for someone else and you forget about yourself, you pounce on creativity, you think: "Maybe it is something for me, and I have the right to take it and it is time to take it! And it is time to bestow it upon myself and my heart."

Again, the thought causes the pain to someone or to something.

A THOUGHT IS A WORD, AN ACTION, CREATIVITY

So, the thought is a word, it's an action, it's a creativity, it is the state of something conscious, and that is how the record is made of something which needs to be taken, carried out, balanced, transformed all to the point of harmony and higher state.

Oh, if the word wouldn't be so painful or graceful!

How is it possible that the word can be so aching, so serving and useful? How is it possible that a word through which I can whisper: "I love you!" (Loving tone) or: "I love you." (Indifferent tone) or: "I love you!!" (Hateful tone) or: "I love you; you understand that. Stop! "

A WORD BECOMES ALIVE WHEN WE INCLUDE AN EMOTIONAL STATE

When does a word become alive?

When we include an emotional state. For example: "Dear Lanyushka, I love you." (Whispers in a most loving way). This is a whisper of the body, this is a whisper of an action, this is a whisper of the heart.

State of awareness when the heart radiates the pulse, when the heart gives a push to a word, so it becomes alive, to become powerful, to become grounded, to become that what you are, it comes to the most beautiful bang and transformation.

And life becomes joy, happiness, love, magic.

And all the records that are made through actions of emotions, coming from a heart charge, they vibrate so high that in the time of being in love, you levitate above the ground. You have a butterfly like body. You have a feeling you are floating above earthly ground and that you are there, somewhere, where the body can't or doesn't know how to.

The state of emotional charge is that something what gives magic to life, what gives perfection to life, what gives power to life, faith and hope. Through that the most beautiful actions are created and exactly this energy, in eternity draws to itself what is alike - as Above, so below. And this is how, I could joke a bit, or not really, Heavens are brought to you, to Oneself, to everyone.

So the beings of Light of the Highest Honour are descending to the lowest of the low and are leading that something what is the most magical, perfect. All until the love rules, harmony rules, magic rules.

But how very painful a human can inflict to himself to forget about his heart, to forget about emotions, to forget about himself and is subordinated? Just ancient past is the guiltiest, the most rotten, the most bitter, which is something that decay.

The word rotten is appropriate, believe me! As the dust, ashes and everything you leave behind, falls apart, rots, and decays, the bitter corpse descends in to soil.

That is what stores the heaviness or the state of heartlessness, non-mercy, non-God's love, but that what peels off from light, are actions that the body, through lives, do.

That is how, on Earth, the energy is in the making, which seemingly doesn't vibrate, but it vibrates in her own state to where her purest voice reaches.

And love leaves and moves higher, in higher states of higher consciousness.

Long time ago one lass said to me: "Never I want to be part of you, because you are transparent. Because you are a void, because you are perfect the way you are."

And so one day I smirked, wrapped around Her and whispered: "Why do you think like that dear lass?"

With her whole playful laughter and playfulness that she had, She served me back, she said: "How can I hug love, how can I squeeze love, how can I bestow it on my breasts when I can't see you, when I hear you, when I actually feel you, when you are who you are. I'm too little to bestow Myself upon You, You are too Mighty, to bestow You upon Myself."

STATE OF COMPLETE LOVE AND DEDICATION TAKES US HOME

However, this is the state of the higher level, to which each individual reaches. This is not the state of Gods! This is the state of complete love and dedication that is taking you home.

When in life, in certain moments, you are put in a situation of deep bitter state, when you are so very pure, dedicated and connective that you have a feeling of that deep gratefulness, you are at the lowest point of this love, from where exactly those which you named Bright, loving, magical and perfect, are passing.

And exactly those, who we are, what we are, are passing through these layers, when the crowd of souls, spirits are leaving into earthly decomposition.

There are many like this and like that, in the body. Heavy and graceful.

Why graceful?

Because they have mercy for those that aren't merciful, and especially these ones, often, do not ever return back home, because they fall under the pain, under the heaviness of decomposition and they stay among them, trapped, sad and impoverished.

Their mercifulness, warmth, good-heartedness and dedication, and without limited time are those, who simply suffer and radiate the state of love at the lowest points, so that everyone who are in a state of a physical body can become aware what it means to be love.

So who traverses, are the ones who can, on the journey of earthly time, go through life, piece by piece. Who can change in their depth each and every one, so they can traverse in to life and through new inhale body can become so very graceful, so very warm so very heartfelt that you, again and again, long for it when you see something so graceful.

The beauty of the body again and again glows and again and again, with an inhale, it comes above you.

That is why the youngest ones glow, that is why the youngest ones glitter and smell nice. The smell of freshness, of warmth, of softness, of that Divine that can, out of parents, out of travellers, out of those who aren't returning home yet, because they are alive and moving, they can bring out the most beautiful of all.

That is why children are given to you. That is why children can be the light of the very light. That is why children can be Love to you, which is limitless, which is Divine and perfect from eternity, right to the point when this self-sacrificing being is not in oneself anymore.

When this Being of Light comes to the point that he is NOT HEARD any more in the time of life, that he is not felt in the time of physical life anymore, that he is being re-educated, that he is being embodied in restlessness, that he is put in some sort of regime, which is not graceful anymore, that being releases himself from the child. Seemingly falls asleep. That is what everyone has in common, to all of those who are closest to him/her.

A child stops glowing. The joy stops radiating on him.

Many ask themselves but why, why is that? So, this is the world I have given my child to?

And exactly this regime, that is false, that isn't curious, is destroying the spirit, soul after soul, light after light, that dis-embodies and leaves elsewhere.

That is why you, through growing up and maturing, you are losing patience, softness or the glow because of the regime that you have created for yourself. Because of the temper of the people that you were supporting. Because of the sleeping state, in which you are again located.

Sleeping state isn't that when you would sleep as those careless little bears, when they go into hibernation. This is the state of vegetation. This is the state of numbness. This is the state in which you come to the point in which you pass in to sadness, despair and anxiety, after which comes what else but fear.

FEAR IS THE CONSEQUENCE OF SOME ACTIONS AND IS THE CONTINUATION OF SOMETHING OLD

Fear is just a consequence of some actions. But everything you have here in this life, is nothing else than the continuation of something old. Of something possibly historical, ancient. Thousands of years or millions of years back. Or to you million null counts, numbers, that you may name or how We name them as countless years of yours.

Fundamentally already, your time is false, because it is divided, because it is put in pieces. Because on a physical Earth there is only THAT which is the worst of the worst.

And only THAT needs to be changed, restructured, as it is said at yours and never at Ours. Transform, get it into the state of lovingness and so you are capable of coming together with that, which is beautiful and finally leave your captured and transitional home - Earth.

LIFE ON EARTH IS A BITTER GAME BECAUSE THROUGH IT WE ARE TURNING MEMORIES AROUND

Life on Earth is a bitter game, because through this bitter game you are turning memories around.

But why only memories?

Because they pull you to the ground, because they pull you in the state of pain and they make you bitter.

And that is why every few years you are traversing, the same in astrology, in various massive periods, where planets overlap the other planet, connect, intertwine and bring their memory or your previous memory, which gives you even bigger change, and at the same time restlessness, that is taking you into change and to be changed.

THE BEING OF LIGHT

Life can be so very beautiful and so very perfect if you can only awaken and return back to the point of the state, where you were born as Light and not Darkness.

No one, as a child, was ever born as Darkness, but as Light. That is why each baby, that came crying among you, instead of coming laughing among you, came to the point, where it shined, no matter what was embodied under. These are the sacrifices of Beings of Light, that surrender and sacrifice themselves.

Where do this beings traverse? Why aren't they returning home? Why aren't they returning back home, to Us? Why can't they decant themselves and simply re-educate themselves?

Because they are merciful. Because they have a good heart. Because they can't let you go and leave you in pain. Because of all of you, because of everyone that aren't capable of understanding what emotions are and why emotions are, they keep on insisting and are becoming your closest ones, almighty ones and the most perfect ones, those who, day and night, watch over you, are next to you, and you call them an Instinct.

This Being is a Being of the highest dedication, that in itself and for itself, through your life, saves everything which escaped from you that is light, pure and honourable.

And many times we help you remember and remind you:” Pay attention, time and again to listen to your Instinct.”

Why so? Why is that? When an Instinct should only be how it was intended as Primeval Being to be.

It was given to you only to watch over you. And at the same time, he is the one, that is absorbing, in itself, all those parts of Light and brightness that escaped from you or left you.

Life - why is it so painful? Why is it so bitter?

Because through life you gained thoughts. Through thoughts you were traversing in to placement of magic, in which you are.

Why are you driven over and over again? Driven into Light, driven into Hope, driven into Trust? Because, everyone, who are in life, wish to return home.

LIFE IS ONLY A CONTINUATION OF THAT WHERE WE ONCE STARTED LOSING FOCUS

But you are coming into time of a repeated transformation, world-wide transformation, in which it could be different from what it is.

Life always brings you pain because that is a memory that you have created for yourself because you didn't want to, because you didn't wish to. Maybe you couldn't. Maybe you only decided to do so. Maybe you withdrew. Maybe you were hiding. Maybe you did that something or nothing and you didn't stand up and disable an ancient past from the bitter records to happen.

In the time of the most poisonous zodiac sign ruling, as it is happening now, it tells you that you are coming in to the period when you won't be able to stand against yourself but you will have to unite. You will have to come close to that which is pure, which is primeval, so you will be able to get life back for yourself, in your own hands.

Life is just a continuation of that which, where in the past, you gave up! Remember that!

That is why walk through the timeline of memory, all the way back, so you can remember what you were afraid the most.

Destructions!

Destructions through earthly history were always violent and were always taking lives.

Way back through history, way back, on other planets, there was a time when modern technology of today's situation prevailed life and prevailed and destroyed all the living beings of eternal journey.

And exactly that is the state of a retake exam, in which you are already positioned, my Dear ones.

And that is the power of life! That is the power of suffering. That is the power of transformation. That is the power of awareness. That is the power of awareness through which you follow your own heart. Not your thoughts, your heart! And do exactly what you feel is right! Not because you are thinking but because you feel.

If sentience is in the state of love, be in the state of love. If the state is in the state of suffering, be in suffering. If the state is in the position of emotional state of fighting, protection - stand up and speak up. Express yourself! Only in the united voice there is power!

IN ANCIENT PAST WE WERE ALREADY DESTROYED, NOW WE ARE POSITIONED IN THE KARMIC OVERLAP BECAUSE OF MODERN TECHNOLOGY

Namely, in the three-year period, which you are entering, you are entering the heaviest and most poisonous zodiac, the one that is destructive, that is overlapping with the zodiac of ancient past of the last planet on which you lived and were destroyed because of the modern technology, after which you were gasping - I won't say everyone, but only individuals, that have brought then world in demolition, you are in the karmic overlap.

Why do you need so much modern knowledge? Why do you need so much modern state, when you weren't born with it? Why do you gasp for modern technology? That you will become even more lazy? Even more impoverished? Even more tortured?

Modernity is giving you the point of even bigger suffering, even bigger enslavement, even bigger pain. But at one point, the biggest point of pain will stop at one of the lowest vibration and so you will reach the bottom so on Earth as in life.

Dear little Slovenes, life is magic, if you create it as one. Life can be pain if you create it as one. You know that. You are aware of that. And this is something you are traveling through.

But you have to know, when a person stops at the deepest in a collective karma or point, the lowest point happens and the highest point opens.

That is when the state of Light, which has collected from you in your Instinct, which is to say it descends higher, to such high as you are at your low.

That is why, now, the biggest Miracles will be happening because the Beings of Light will stand by you over and over again.

LIFE IS THE STRONGEST ENERGY OF EXISTENCE

Life is a power of pretending. Life is a power of transformation. Life is the strongest energy of existence and at the same time the most destructive and transformative.

How is it possible that you are so very trapped on Earth? How is it possible that on Earth you don't understand that you are on a wrong path? How is it possible that people with that kind of maturity that you are in contemporariness, allows enslaving of oneself, suffering of oneself and sadness of oneself?

Where is your joy? Where is your happiness? Where is your love? Where is your warmth? Where are you? Where are you floating?

Dear human, awaken in you as much love as possible. Awaken as many Light Beings in you as possible. And follow yourself. Not society. Yourself!

When a human gets a hold of himself, he starts sensing himself, then you will feel your own beating heart.

Not from radiation. Not from electromagnetic waves. Not from that which a modern technology is giving you, when your heart is racing, when your heart beat escalates on multiple turns, so you will come into exhaustion, you will come into used up energy of life and leave life.

But that is when you feel peace. That is when you feel the stillness inside of you. When, inside yourself, you feel the depth. When you feel, inside yourself, the magnificence and stability. And that brings joy. That brings awareness. That brings knowing. That brings the strongest power that you are having inside yourself, when you connect with your own heart.

Heart is the foundation of the moving energy, where the Fundamental Energy and heart energy blend in wholeness, in perfection, in divinity, in that something where your energy is accumulating for so long, in this explosive charged faze, that the bang happens and the opening of the upper world happens.

Let this happen through your love! Let this happens through your mercy! Because, life gave you an opportunity and a chance to get to know yourself, and not society!

LET'S NOT GASP FOR PROGRESS!

Don't gasp for progress!

The progress is giving you test tubes, in which your children will be raised, which will never be your children again, but parts collected from you, which will be raised in a test tube, next to which you will grow, wonder and explore the embryo and how it grows.

But what about your sense? What is, all of this, bringing us? Is that really something which is genuine, which is primeval? Were you born in a testing tube? Or were you born through mother?

Your modernity will take fertility from you. Your technology will turn off the chance of upbringing. Your technology will turn off your knowings. Your modernity will strip you off, because you are far away from your heart. Because you are far away from love, from that which you are, my dear ones!

Don't you sense, who are We, what are We, why are We? Can't you sense, what we are bringing you? Can't you feel where your path is?

Your modernity, your technology 5G is just one piece of that state, where you will, with a vibration, destroy the breath of life of Mother Earth. You will overrule it and destroy it.

When you're destroying it, they are destroying you as well, my dear ones!

Why do you need so much destruction? Why don't you allow Mother Earth to breathe with you? Why don't you allow happiness? Why are you going crazy in time, which is shorter and shorter so it doesn't allow you even that much to stop and see they are playing with you? That the planet Earth is rotating and moving else where, differently, in different vibrations and time.

My dear Ones, life is a game of words, which come alive and graceful, when you add emotions, when you add love, when you add gracefulness and your shallowness.

Don't you want to be happy? Do you really think you are here to be sacrificed? Do you really think you need to be tortured? And my dear little Slovenes, not a human, but little Slovenes, little Slovenes were the primeval and autochthonous on Earth. Do you remember how big your native country was? How much of the world were you covering through life, and you lost it. Today in this life you traversed in Slovenia. It's beautiful! Such a beautiful country as you have here, you can't find anywhere. Remember that!

But you have a country. But what about people? What is with you? Where did you lose yourself? Why don't you enable children more time? Why don't you enable love to those graceful and gentle? Why don't you allow to play in nature and sing and dance together? Why don't you allow yourself to laugh heartily?

Because you allowed, already through history, that other manoeuvre you. That other think instead of you. That other tell, what is going to happen with you!

Dear little Slovenes, you have an amazing foundation. You are an amazing nationality. Someone, that I collaborate with, is extremely proud, to be little Slovene.

When Lanyushka came among Us for the first time, she said: "I Am Slovene and I will stay Slovene!" With deep gratitude and belonging, that she is Slovene, She charmed us.

And, I didn't say anything. I bowed and kissed the floor under Her feet. And honoured Slovenia as Our home.

I don't expect this from you, for Us. Truly I don't. I expect that you remind yourself of your Primeval Being.

LET'S TRY TO STOP LIFE

Go, try to stop life. Stop yourself, my dear ones! And stop thinking about debits. Stop thinking about bills. Stop thinking about how it will be.

Can you imagine that everyone, on planet Earth or everyone in Slovenia stops? Stops and say: "It's enough! Today and this very moment I need my time." And you stop working. And everyone in Slovenia walks away from work and go home.

Can you imagine, that all of Slovenes unite and say: "At noon I am going home!" And everyone stands up and go home.

Who can do anything to you?

Ha, ha, ha, can you imagine? You just have to be united! United. Whole.

This is your power - unity!

Be one breath. Be one energy.

Can you imagine being at home at one o'clock already? Can you imagine that at one, you dine with your beloved ones? Can you imagine, that at one o'clock and zero minutes, your children are at home, your partners are at home, your parents are with you. Your grandparents. Your friends. Those that you don't have time for. And you are together until two o'clock.

Well, at the beginning, for a week you would be giving each other looks. Then you would hate each other, for a week. Then for one week you would be calming yourself down. Then you would get fond of each other. And that would bring you, once again, in to infatuation.

That would bring you in to a new feeling to one another. That would bring you to the point of your own yearning, your own life. And at four o'clock everyone would laugh already.

Time would be prevailed. You would stop time. And no one could do anything to you, because soldiers would participate as well. Because, in the same process, even police would participate. Even politicians, who like to go home.

Can you imagine - you have life in your own hands. But you have suffering in your own hands too. Only unity, one voice, one thought, one action, one emotion is what changes the world.

Little Slovenes, truly, stop yourself! Close your working hours.

Not even in banks they will squeeze you, because no one will be there that would work in a bank. Not even on your Tax authority, because they will be at home, because at one o'clock they will dine with their dear ones.

In Our time, it is exactly like that. Before noon we maybe work for two hours, but not for the system, but to contribute to the feeling of belonging to one another and in the afternoon we spend time with who ever our heart desires. And why wouldn't you have that as well?

Through that you stop the time. Through that you are taking Slovenia into the disguise of peace and harmony.

Can you imagine that everyone who were deported from their homes as well as those that are avoided by everyone and are looking for a new home in the time of Europe, to stop, to calm down and to accept what is. And slowly Love rules the world.

Exactly that.

Love is the foundation of everything. And the Mother Nature will awaken again.

Not even those will drive, who wants to spray you. Not even those will drive, that lead, drive and poison the sky. But you know, everything are conspiracies only. Just an illusion! Until in the heaviness of disease, you don't fall under the weight of one another.

Do you really need that? Were you born with it and you didn't comprehend? Is that truly your record, that needs to be repeated and upgraded?

Come on, wake up!

Because the change can happen only with you, because you are alive. The energy has outlived the rest and it is moving in the memory. And when we transmit the energy else where, we embody it in an artificial body. It travels only in a retake exam from whatever it is composed of.

Is this really all you expect from the life of yours, what you have now, when there is peace and harmony above you?

Even the intermediate worlds, times and spaces, that are stringed high high above you, when in the terrestrial layer the peace prevails already. A lot of love prevails already. And when you reach out of the earthly embracing stream, ha, that is when your heart and soul stops because of that peace. Peace.

When did you feel peace inside of you? When did you feel perfection? When in the time of the day, I will say, you feel calmness?

Very rarely and not often. Do you really need this? Aren't you capable of trusting yourself?

THOUGHTS ARE THOSE THAT ARE CAUSING US RESTLESSNESS

Thoughts are the only ones that are causing you restlessness.

"I have to do this and that! I have to finish this and that! I have to! I have to! I have to!"

And that is how you are shortening the time of your travel, because you are destroying your own self and drain life energy.

Do you really have to? Did anyone ever said to you: "You have to be born!"?
Never ever!

They always said: "It's time for you to face yourself. You are ready. When you feel it, decide."

This is how it is in these higher Terrestrial worlds.

But, you know, lower you go, harder it's going to be. More you are in harmony with yourself, more you are connected with the Hight, more you feel peace and stability.

PEACE IS CONNECTEDNESS WITHIN ONESELF

Peace.

What is peace?

That children are quiet? That dogs are quiet? That cats are quiet? That neighbours are quiet? That maybe tractors are quiet? Cars quiet?

What is peace?

Peace is connectedness within oneself. Where the breath of a spirit is connected with the Fundamental Being, with the last living being, that is connected to love and connected to mind and reason, that they are becoming oneness of one wholeness, where no one is thinking and it is just the state of awareness and existence.

And when you just are in this grandness, when you just breathe in this perfection, you come to the point where you feel serenity, because you feel that you are happy and not unhappy.

And you all think you are not capable of something like this on Earth? But you are!

We believe in you. We know, that you are capable of it. We know, that you are capable of being in healthy relationships. We know you are capable of being love. We believe, we know and we are aware, that you are inside what you are, because you are from the Source, because you are from the God, because you are Love.

LET'S LEGALISE TIME, SO WE GO HOME AT NOON

Come on, legalise time so you go home at noon. Legalise, so at noon no one goes anywhere anymore. Legalise, that everyone who are without a job, are going shopping instead of you and they bring you, before noon, whatever you need. Legalise, that those, who are free, who don't know what to do with themselves, to garden for you. Legalise, that before noon you do as much as you do, and then you spend time with your close ones. Legalise that.

Is that really so hard?

You just have to change your thoughts!

You, on your own, brought it to the point, that you are, where you are. You have put yourself in debt. You brought yourself to the point of borrowing money on your own. You, alone, fell for it, that you have to, that you want to, that you wish to, that you need to. You, alone, brought it to the point that you moved away from each other.

Now fix it on your own.

Come on, time before noon, dedicate it to one another.

Why do you need shops to be open in the afternoon? Why do you need to fill up your cars in the afternoon time or in the evening time? Why do you need all that?

Why do you need money, in such measure, that you swim in it and you feel safe, when they will turn it off and they are going to lead you thirsty across waters.

Do you really need this?

Are you aware where this novelty is taking you?

They will take money from you. They will give you an artificial currency because, in this life time, everything is moving forward. Why?

For you to have numbers on your card and you won't know when there aren't anymore, because the system won't work, because a bank won't work, all of a sudden banks will be closed. And you won't know what to do with a bank card. It will even get old.

ONCE WE WILL GET CHIPPED, WE WON'T BE HAPPY EVER AGAIN

And they will transfer a chip in your arm. And you will say: "You don't need to change cards anymore. You don't need anything anymore."

But, the chip is bringing you advantage in your surveillance.

You have no idea where you are flowing!

You won't be happy , ever again, but you will be unhappy. You won't feel ever again!

Because everyone who has a chip, are just a program in which they show they are JOYFUL and they CELEBRATE, when they get chipped. Does it seem normal to you that thousands of people are making the same state. Doesn't it seem unusual to you? Something extraordinary? That you are becoming robots, because they are, with this chip, taking all the emotions, all the energy, all the vibration, away from you.

You will sleep as much as they will give you sleep. You will eat, as much as they will give you.

At the very beginning, they will conjure up as if everything is perfect, that everything is the best, that it is everything you need. That without it, best of the best doesn't exist. You don't even need the keys of your car. You don't even need the keys to open any kind of doors. You don't need anything!

But they don't need you either, once they will turn you off!

How will you pass on the value of anything to your child, when in the final option, you will be able to buy just as much as you will have?

I am asking you dear little Slovenes, when the time of memory comes, you will only follow your memory in a continuation of what you already had.

You can buy food for yourself - not for anyone! As much as you will use! Because the productions will be shut down and, you will buy or feed yourself, on the way, just as much as your stomach will be able to be fed. How will you feed your child, because your child doesn't work? How will you give him/her your numbers?

Do you even ask yourself? Are you even aware where this life is taking you? Are you even aware that everyone that ridicules, that are making fun, that you can't actually hold it against them, because they don't know, because they are not awake, because they are not at the same stage as you are.

Life is a path of game of actions, that already were, that all were already created. Which bring you what they bring you.

Nevertheless, in life you can balance again, if you calm down, if you stop.

Come on, demand. Give one voice, that at noon you are at the final stage of your work. Even if you start working from eight to twelve, believe me, you will be so productive, that you won't even think of wanting to go to the shopping mall to stroll around, because you don't have any place where, what or where to put your children to.

Because for few months you will need some time to wrap your head around but quickly you will get used to it, to what life actually is.

You weren't born with shopping malls! You weren't born with chips! You weren't born with cars! You were born with legs.

Start using legs! Start strolling around. Start talking to each other. Start looking in to each other's eyes. Start feeling each other, my dear ones!

This is life - walk, talk to each other.

Maybe at the beginning you won't have much to talk about, because you will say: "Oh my, this one is still so rigid! Oh my, this one is still so crazy! Oh my, this one is too loud! This one doesn't know how to laugh. He doesn't know how to do something. He is too stupid. He is too smart. One is going to be like this and like that."

But you know this is exactly what you need, so you will feel the diversity of your population. So you will smile. So you will say: "This is life! This is love!" And slowly you will help each other to come to senses.

Even, if in one part of life, you have very intelligent people around you, they need humour. And when you start spending time with one another, you will gain a lot from one another, you will raise each other and at the end one united population will be formed. United joy, yes!

This is something that you need.

But if you don't need any socialising then go under the tree and feel the tree. Turn up to the sky and watch the Breath of Life. Watch the travellers. Admire the world around you. That is the power that you have inside yourself.

And when you are who you truly are, when you will pause, you will soon sense the Being of Light that is above you, the One that gathers that which is the most beautiful, most perfect, most magical. And that is exactly what you need, my dear ones.

TECHNIQUE: HOW TO CONNECT WITH THE BEING OF LIGHT OF OUR COMPLETENESS, WITH OUR OWN ENERGY (video: 1:07:38)

In the time of connecting with yourself, you will sense where this Being of Light is located, who slowly, in the time of childhood disappeared, bits by bits, as energy, it left you.

Think, where the Instinct is. With thoughts, you ease the thought so you sense where diagonally, on the right, slightly up, sits, stands, float, but never sleeps, your Instinct.

Think of his figure and you will sense the tie of energy as a string that is attached to you.

And right through this string or tube, the energy of the Being of Lights has collected. Sense these pieces of your purest energy of this life, that was given to you, from you.

Sense, is this energy in him or next to him, a little higher, opposite you.

Try to sense it, is it on the right side in front of you, slightly up, as it would be in the opposite direction of the Instinct.

It is transparent. It is graceful. It is Bright. It is Divine.

And notice yourself. And from there, notice the bright energetic tie on you and by you we mean Fundamental Being.

The cord, that is in front of you on the right, it is slightly diagonally bound up and attached to you, on the Fundamental Being.

Notice, how the energy can, as it breaths, slightly lowers down to the naval or all the way down to the uterus, or somewhere else. It depends where the Fundamental Being is located.

Notice, that the Fundamental Being needs to be placed in the position of plexus, in the original part of itself.
Place it there.

Rotate it so it will gaze slightly diagonally, as it would gaze outwardly to the right and it touches the skin with its small hands. As it would want to touch from the inside wall of the skin on the outside perhaps.

Instantly, its chakra activates.
And from the left palm of the Fundamental Being, the energy pours into him. From the right side, the energy runs down the tube again in to the Being of Light of your completeness.

Sense the centre of energy inside the Being itself. As the Being of Light would have another little being inside itself, but bigger than you.
Notice that.
And exactly this little being inside, as its Fundamental Being, touches your set up tubes there and exactly there grabs hold of it.

Instantly the energy connects back. And so its centre starts collaborating with your centre.
You will feel the warmth, gracefulness, cosiness.

And this energy will be getting closer and closer to you. You will literally sense it, as if this big, bright and warm being would hug you and hold you in its arms.
It's yours. That was you in the initial phase, until the system ruined you completely.

At one point, allow the being to withdraw again and to return back to its position.

Move the Fundamental you back to the plexus position, in its centre, in its space. Where it belongs. Even if it hides somewhere at the back, don't worry! It will come back to its own place where its home of this life time and journey is.

Inhale through the nose so deeply, so you feel the energy of alertness in the head and spill it, slowly, slowly all over the body as you would want to spill it through head, through corp, through left hand, through right hand and through both legs. Spill it slowly, all the way down to the centre of the sole, continuing to your little toes, to the tips of your toes, where you come together and vacuum yourself back.

The state of lightness of the new inhale and alertness brings you back here, in continuation of the following topic.

Whenever you will need your energy, this is how you connect with it, to move your Fundamental Being, so it touches. As it would, at the front, on the right side, touch the wall of the skin. And the cord will energetically connect. Therefore you can sense peace more intensely.

And right this being and Fundamental Being are coming together and flow over one another, always when the Fundamental Being moves diagonally. That is why you can sense peace more and more. And especially through that, two beings or one united being, it is not important. You know that energy is there to interlace, to unite. Because in the united energy there is the purest strength, the biggest strength, the most magical strength, the most exquisite strength.

That is why I would like to say to you:

Feel the life and breathe with life. Set and coordinate the boundary for yourselves.

Legalise your life and you will see that on Earth, peace and harmony will overrule eternally.

I would like to propose to take a little pause, a short break, and after that we will touch upon your curious questions.
